

Joshua Kenny-Greenwood

Paul, I have literally spent the last several years giving away access to the Corporation Sole at no cost to those ministers of the gospel that have a true calling of faith on their lives. I've travelled to Los Angeles on three separate occasions giving it away to those ministers that had the faith to accept the gift the Lord was giving them (ask Prophet Thomas Clark, Apostle Anthony McFarland and Apostle Will Wheat this). Even to those ministers that never bothered to pay a penny each month or yearly, I have not withheld from them. Even those right now that have not done anything to support us materially, if they simply log into ChurchFreedom.org, they are given access to transition to here in Montana at no cost. Month after month, I have not been a burden to the Body of Christ. Literally, when is the last time on any Tuesday call or in any email I have sent out asked for a single donation? Even when I was transitioning to Montana and had nothing the day prior to my lease being terminated, I did not burden the body of Christ. All so that those Pastors that do not live on faith would know what it looked like and sounded like when a fellow brother lived 100% on the faith and supernatural blessings of the Lord. So they knew with 100% certainty that the Lord was with me and they were a witness to the supernatural increases he gave without a single burden being asked of the Church (and mind you, there is no other income, no other anything the Lord has us doing in business - it all comes from the Lord). This is why when prophecies are given, they are so precise and come to pass as evidence. This is why when I have needs, I tell the assembly of Pastors in advance (not to ask them for money, but to show them how the Lord operates with faith), then they watch as the need is met supernaturally. Now, I come to find that you and the company you own and the website you are operating here: <http://churchcorpsoles.com/the-solution/> are taking what was freely given to the Body of Christ and to your own ministry and you are attempting to charge $2,145 for what is freely been given to the Church? Using the affidavit the Lord commanded that I write. You even copy material from our site? All for you to use for your own financial gain? That is not ministry and NOT from the Holy Spirit. In fact, the Lord commanded that I stay clear from any man wanting to make money from the Corporation Sole in this season. Paul, I am coming to you as a brother in Christ to ask you to stop this. It places you in a very bad position in more ways than you currently are aware of. The Lord is your provider Paul, if your desire is to set Churches free, then give those Churches with leaders that line up with 1st Timothy 3:1-13 this link www.ChurchFreedom.org/favor and it will bypass our application process and give them 100% free access to all of our site materials which includes us freely representing their Churches Corporation Sole's here in Montana. Do this and terminate all aspects of your site and what it asks for in money and you will be protected. If not, then you will find yourself directly violating instruction from the Lord - from which there is no protection. The Corporation sole was only meant for a remnant of his people. In fact he told me time was of the essence years ago when he commanded that I write the book. Now you have been given prophetic word, after word, after word. You are not ignorant of the truth. Now soon I will be leaving my home to prophecy more and designate those places of refuge as you have been told. When those words are spoken, you do not want the IRS even having the hint of what you have on your site. you will have ruin brought on yourself by not taking it down. I will leave now and pray you receive this message in the spirit of love that it was given to you and that you act upon it quickly.

Sincerely,

Joshua Kenny-Greenwood

As Sr. Pastor, The Empowerment Center Church, ChurchFreedom.org and TestimonyToday.org

Hey Joshua .... I appreciate your spirit of love, and I return it. As always, blessings to you. Are you asking me to take down the site, or just remove the cost? My intent with the website is to promote Corporation Soles, not to gain money. As a matter of fact, this is my intent: To create awareness and have people search the internet. When they search the internet, they will find my site, your site and a couple of other ones. Thinking about it, I put the price up high so people would actually come go elsewhere (probably you), because I don't think anyone would pay to have this done, if they can get it free.

Also, to make it very clear - you did not give it to me freely - you charged me $200 for my Oregon filing. And you certainly charged others, and promoted it up to $3000 at one time, then $1500 at one time. Then afterward, you started giving it freely because the Lord spoke to you to do so. Likewise, I need you to respect the Spirit of the Lord within me, and allow God to tell me to remove the cost as He did you. And I have no problem removing it at all. smile emoticon

The site just went up a couple of weeks ago, and as a matter of fact, I've been praying about contacting you to see if you wanted to partner in this somehow to get the word out even more. And see if I could offer your book on my site and this would lead people to you, or me - as long as it gets done.

Now, if you remember, you charged me $200, and I've donated to your ministry - so you may not charge now, but you did at one time. A friend or 2 of mine also paid you to help them get theirs. Which is okay with me, I gladly paid you what you were asking. So charging money should not be an issue with you, but like I said, I don't have a problem at all removing the pricing.

As far as taking information from your site, I did complete internet research, and found information about Corporation Soles throughout the internet. And I had a content writer search the internet also. We found information on your site, on Hush Money's site and then found an attorney here in California that had lots of information on his site and has been filing Corporation Soles for 35 years (and charges about $2800). All the sites, have the same information on them as yours. I don't think there is any proprietary information on any of these sites.

As far as Your church affidavit, I am NOT using it at all - I'm just using the generic term of church affidavit. I actually spoke to an attorney at the California Secretary of States office (where mine is files) and she gave me the 14 points that IRS looks for. I also spoke to the attorney here in California that has been filing for CS's for 35 years, and he gave me a copy of the 14 points the IRS looks for.

So I took nothing from you Brother. And I need you to hear my heart - I'm not against you, but contrary, I praise what you are doing for God. smile emoticon

I do not receive your Word that I will bring ruin upon myself. The scripture commands us to edify one another and that prophets are to edify the church, and God will not give words of discouragement to His children. God never gives a single person exclusivity on what He is doing - it takes a body. And God never gives a "blessing" to only a few in His body - we're all His Bride and worthy of all His blessings. While here on earth, God never hold anything back for just a few, for a few remnants - Brother, that's not scripture at all. What is good for you, is good for every believer. I have a question ... you state for me to terminate all aspects of my site and I'll be protected - protected from what Brother? Violating what instructions from the Lord?

Can you explain why I don't want the IRS having a hint of what I have on my site? It's just a business under the corporation sole that you said was legal. You stated that Corporation Soles can have businesses, as long as the money goes into the ministry. So I need you to explain why the IRS would have an issue with this, and I'm very willing to learn and change. Please correct me if I'm out of line, but your message to me seems as if it is full of threats, and threats are not of God. So my heart is open for a better understanding of what you mean.

Blessings to you, as always

Paul

And in the spirit of love, I'll be happy to remove the word "affidavit" off the site, if that will make you happy. My heart is to bless you Brother, not discourage you or come against you. I think we can work together on accomplishing what God wants for His bride. smile emoticon

Paul, did the Lord command you to help spread the word of the Corporation Sole? If so, then why did you not help spread the word of ChurchFreedom.org and instead build your own site as a business to charge $2,145? The Lord commanded me to put no limitation on the Corporation Sole for those Churches that still had faith. It is not in the nature of the Lord to command a man to do this and then command another man to build a website to charge $2,145. That is out of Godly order. If you are commanded by the lord to help spread the word of the CS, then do so by sending those Pastors that you know that meet the description of 1st Timothy 3:1-13 the free link I gave you or have them apply if they are questionable. That would help, if there is any remnant left in your sphere of influence. In what you describe, you saw an opportunity, did your research (both market research and legal research) and implemented an idea. If this is not your intentions and it is not your intentions to make money, then terminate the site and make a point to help us here at ChurchFreedom by using your SEO abilities in furthering the work of God here. When you say, "God never gives a single person exclusivity on what He is doing - it takes a body" Brother, David was anointed to be the King of Israel, NOT Absalom. When Absalom attempting to take on the responsibilities of that anointing out of turn, it led to his ruin. Now, because we are one body with many parts, each of us have a unique gift and talent we can bring to the table to further the Kingdom. In your case, if you have SEO gifts and talents, then bring them to the table to help what the Lord has established here. So far up to this point, that is NOT what you did. You should have listened to your heart a week or so ago when this thought arose in you to speak with me, it would have brought you peace in this situation. You say, "I do not receive your Word that I will bring ruin upon myself." When I spoke those words, Paul when have you known me to prophecy and it not come to pass? Even if you rebuke or not accept the words, they remain in effect and they are very real. You will not bring ruin if you follow the instructions the Lord gave you tonight. When you say I charged you $200, why did you say I charged you when you signed a sworn engagement affidavit to me under the penalties of perjury attesting to the fact that we in fact did not charge you like a business would but that you freely gave that to us as a donation? You have also digitally signed our terms of use agreement attesting to this fact on ChurchFreedom.org. Brother, I appreciate any donation given (even the one you freely gave us for the gas money to get up to the Montana capitol!) I remember that when you gave then too. This entire situation can easily be resolved by simply following the instructions the Lord had me write to you tonight. The issue of the CS is not the exposure it receives Paul, I have emailed 300,000 Pastors regarding it and hold literally every youtube ranking for the word Corporation Sole there is. It is a faith issue to which only a few have been called. We deny countless - COUNTLESS applicants that have offered up to $50,000 cash to process Corporation Soles. That is why the Lord gave me this assignment. Now, you have been given a link to freely give to any Pastor (a link that we have freely given away even on our Testimony Tuesday calls) I keep track of each and every single Church that signs up with that link and communicate to each one. If you are trying to help the body, then give those qualified that link and they will freely get access as described. That will help the cause, will bring Godly order to what he has already established, disarm any attack the enemy could bring against you and bring peace between you and your brother.

In my spirit of cooperation, I removed the word "Affidavit" from the site, and I removed the pricing. Going to bed Brother .... you need to read your words as if someone was giving them to you.

From someone who is your elder and has lived for, and served God many more years than you have - I encourage you to check your spirit. Right now, it's not of God.

If you have 300,000 pastors on your list, why does my little site threaten you? You should have laughed and said, "Bless his heart."

Talk to you tomorrow. I'll say blessings to you, while you curse me. Your curse words are not from God. My spirit wants to encourage you, your spirit wants to curse me - which one comes from God?

Paul, for someone that is my elder and has lived for, and served God many more years than I have, you have showed a terrible display and lack of both love and wisdom for your fellow brother. You have set an example that in the desperation to make money, you are willing to copy fellow Christian brothers materials for your own personal financial gain...and then call it Church. By your own admission, you are disingenuous when you say, "My intent with the website is to promote Corporation Soles, not to gain money." yet, you had in mind to charge $2,145! If your intention was not to make money, then you have both manipulated speaking with me and your audience of Pastors online. You think that by removing the $2,145 price tag but yet adding the contact phone number for them to call you so you can simply charge them on the back end when they call you is a thing you can hide from the Lord? You attempted to use our Church Establishment Affidavit (to which, I had taken a screen shot proving) and then lie to a brother saying you are going to use a watered down version to help others (further placing the Church in bondage - because now you would admit to using a sub standard version of something the Lord intended to protect his remnant with). You even copy blog posts we publish such as when the officer in Florida tried to arrest the street evangelist! The Lord gives you a warning (for your own protection out of love) that you will bring ruin on yourself going down this path (which were not my words, the Lord showed me something in the future about you, if you had not turned from this) - to which you rebuke the warning from the Holy Spirit and call it a curse? I still have yet for you to answer my simple question, "when have you ever known me to prophecy and it not come to pass?" - You haven't the slightest repentance in your heart for even offending a fellow brother and you show absolutely no fear of the Lord for his messenger that prophecies for your own protection. Paul, the Lord specifically warned me to stay away from any brother that tried to make money from the Corporation Sole - which you are trying to do. You still have the intention to make money from it on the back end when they call your websites phone number - nothing is hidden from the Lord. You maybe my elder with age but not with wisdom in this case. It is apart of my responsibility to warn the Body of Christ (to which, the Lord has given me a considerable voice too that is highly respected) and those on the internet from those that would use the Corporation Sole for its unintended uses and or brothers that are willing to receive from you only to copy your material to use for their own financial gain (which is precisely what you've done in this case). Paul, it would have been much better had you taken down the site and followed the instructions given to you the other night in helping us.

Paul R Oebel

Thank you for giving me words that you feel are from God. It is your responsibility to give them, and that's it. It's not your responsibility to enforce them. So you've said enough.

It is up to the Receiver to discern the "Giver" of the words, and try them to see if they are of God or not. Then it's up to the Receiver to either reject, or accept and obey.

You are assuming everything. How can you give "words from the Lord" when all your doing is assuming? You're guessing everything you're stating - and God does not work on assumptions.

You're assuming that I'll charge money. You have no idea if I'm going to charge or not! You have no idea what I'll charge, IF I do. America gives every business the right to charge fees for services. Do you not believe in American freedom and our Constitution?

You're assuming that I'm desperate to make money.

You're assuming I'm using the Church Establishment Affidavit documents that you created. You even used some of MY wording in your affidavit.

You're assuming that I have a lack of love.

You're assuming that I have a lack of wisdom.

You're assuming that I'm willing to copy material for my own personal gain. Did not you researched and COPY information from IRS, you even quote IRS statements and government material?

Are you for, or against free enterprise and the American way?

What if someone that you're just an acquaintance with, came to you and they stated that God said to tell you that He's finished with your Corporation Sole work and you need to take your website down, and if you don't, ruin will come upon you? How would you respond?

Keep convincing yourself Paul. All you've done is further confirm why the Church needs to steer clear from you.
